STOLE A MARCH.

On Judge O'Rear While He Was Out of the State.

"At the last April term of the Fiscal Court of Montgomery county, Messrs. J. H. Mason, J. T. Highland, and M. S. Tyler were elected Commissioners of the Sinking Fund. At the same meeting Mr. H. C. Howell, a member of the Court, made a motion to appoint Mr. M. S. Tyler Treasurer of the Sinking Fund. Judge O'Rear declined to put the motion, holding that the appointment of the Treasurer was exclusively in the jurisdiction of the County Court. Thus matters have stood. Mr. Tyler still holding the office of Treasurer under a former appointment.

"About ten days ago Judge O'Rear went to Indiana on a visit, and then the Magistrates stole a march on him. The law says there shall be two sessions of the Fiscal Court—in April and October—but that special sessions may be called by the County Judge, or in his absence by a majority of the Magistrates, whenever the necessity exists for same. After Judge O'Rear had gone Messrs. H. C. Howell, R.

B. Crooks and J. W. Morris, Magistrates, called a meeting of the Fiscal Court and in this call stated that they deemed a necessity existed for such meeting.

"The Court accordingly met on Thursday, October 17, with Messrs. H. C. Howell, R. B. Crooks, J. W. Morris and John Trimble present. At this meeting H. C. Howell was elected Presiding Judge, and he stated that the meeting was called for the purpose of electing a Treasurer of the Sinking Fund. On motion Mr. M. S. Tyler was elected Treasurer and gave bond with J. C. Tyler, Mrs. Sallie A. Berry, Smith Hansford, W. T. Tyler and Lewis Apperson as sureties. Judge Howell at once approved the bond and the Court adjourned.

"This was the great necessity that existed for a session of the Fiscal Court while the County Judge was absent. Comment is unnecessary."

The above is from the Mt. Sterling Gazette, headlines and all. The Gazette thinks "comment unnecessary," nevertheless we shall take occasion to comment just a little. In the first place Mr. J. T. Highland is not one of the Sinking Fund Commissioners. Mr. David G. Howell, a Republican from principle and as honest and upright man as Mr. Highland, serves in his place. And by the way just let us say Mr. Howell does not find anything in the way of his serving with Mr. Tyler on that Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners. Again was the Gazette aware of the fact that the Treasurer of the Sinking Fund had come to the Fiscal Court and said to it, "If you, any of you, think my bond insufficient state the fact and you shall be satisfied, as of right you should be, with an ample bond."

Is the Gazette aware that it was the County Judge, who was standing in the way of the Fiscal Court performing its duty? Is the Gazette aware that the County Judge was afraid to exercise the authority he tried to bull-doze or cajole the Magistrates into believing he possessed, and failing in his efforts to hoodwink the Magistrates, stood square across the path of the county's interest? Is the Gazette aware of the fact that when this same County Judge was asked by one of the best men in the county, and by the way a Republican too, to go out of the county and let a special session of the Fiscal Court be called for the purpose of untangling this tangle, the County Judge replied, "Why they will elect Matt Tyler and he don't speak to me." The "great necessity" for immediate action is to be found in the fact that there were moneys ready to be paid the Treasurer of the Sinking Fund and nobody ready to receive them.

Brother Johnnie, what do you

How to Vote.

Let every man place his X with in the square containing the party device and just under the rooster's feet, when he comes to the polls next Tuesday.

Shop Lifters.

William Burke and James Murry, two tramps, were arrested Sunday morning. They had taken at Chenault & Punch's four shoes which were on the outside of the store as samples, and had sold them to a negro for fifty cents, who, finding they would not mate, demanded his money, and the tramps, refusing to give it up, Mr. Taul was notified and arrested them, and the shoes were identified as the goods of Chenault & Punch. Negroes began talking and it was soon found out that they had lifted a dozen shirts from the Racket Store and gum boots and other articles from other stores. Trial is fixed for Wednesday morning, and from all appearances these fellows will take a trip to Frankfort.

C. A. Thomas, of Milbourn, Australia will lecture at the Somerset church next Friday evening at 7 o'clock. Subject, "Land of the bounding Kangaroo." mean by your "comment is unnecessary?" David Howell, Howard Howell, Bob Crooks, John Morris, John Mason, John Trimble, who among these are parties, or will be knowingly, parties to a "shady" transaction?

Brother Johnnie, didn't you try to make a little political capital out of a partial statement of a transaction, that you knew would bear the light of full investigation?

Woodford's Horse Sale.

Mr. John T. Woodford's sale of saddle horses on Tuesday last was well attended but prices realized were not commensurate with the value of the stock sold. About forty head of horses changed hands, most of them young animals. The average price realized was $79 per head. It seems as if no class of horses to-day are commanding prices that will justify dealers in handling them. The stock above sale was in fine condition and the breeding A. 1., but the demand was limited.

The personality at the sale of B. F. Cockrell brought fair prices, except on horses and mules which went very low.
